The Prime Minister is seen using some VERY official documents to mop his streaming nose.

But look a little closer, and you will see it's actually just a look-alike, snapped by spoof photographer Alison Jackson.

She captures the PM sat in some blue pyjamas with a LOT of screwed up Top Secret documents scattered on the bed around him.

Oh and of course, there is his official red box too.

Cameron was accused recently of doing nothing to cut the "morally unforgivable" number of people killed by the cold.

Derek Lickorish, of the Fuel Poverty Advisory Group, said some of the £4billion a year collected in carbon taxes should go on more insulation programmes.

The photographer recently captured the 'Royal family's Christmas' complete with toy corgis, Prince Harry dressed as Santa and the Queen looking very happy indeed.
