

Alison Jackson's Ivy Club portraits

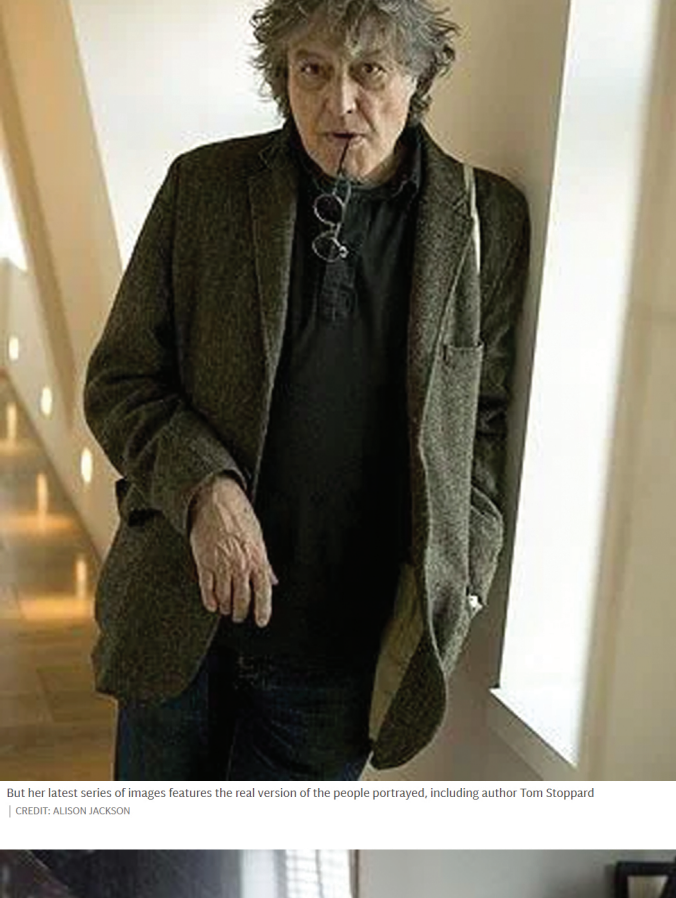

Photographer Alison Jackson unveils her (real) celebrity portrait exhibition.

Art photographer Alison Jackson, stands on the Ivy Club stairs, where she has made several of her new series of portraits of contemporary theatrical greats | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON

The 48-year-old award-winning film maker is more known for her spoof documentaries | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON

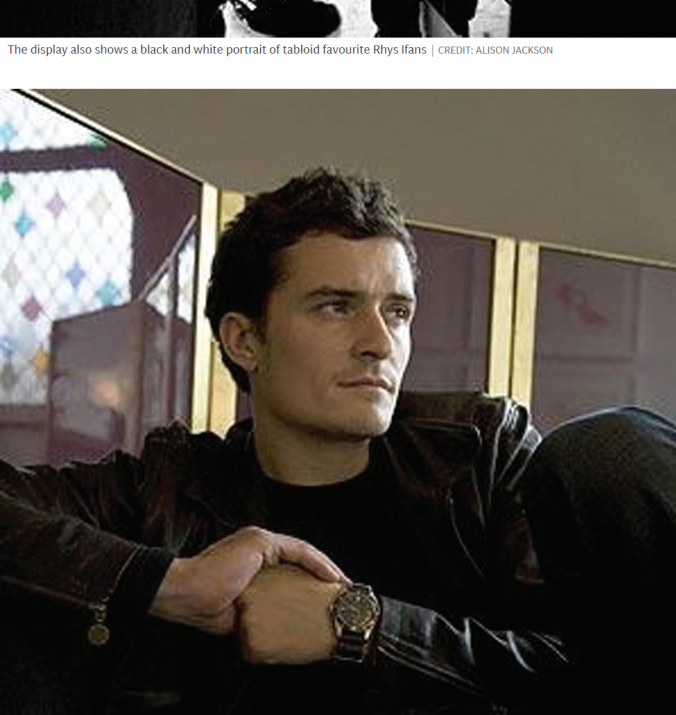

But her latest series of images features the real version of the people portrayed, including author Tom Stoppard | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON

and American actress Gillian Anderson... | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON

The display also shows a black and white portrait of tabloid favourite Rhys Ifans | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON

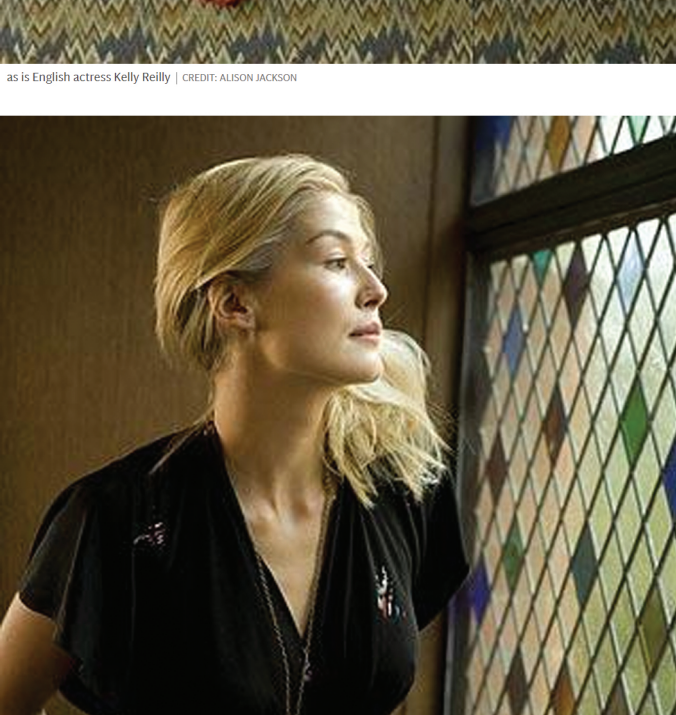

Hollywood heartthrob Orlando Bloom is also featured | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON

Felicity Kendal, perhaps most recognised for her role in the Good Life, is also there | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON

as is English actress Kelly Reilly | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON

And Rosamund Pike, who starred as a Bond villainess in Die Another Die | CREDIT: ALISON JACKSON